2. Sears Holdings Corporation and its debtor affiliates, as debtors and debtors in possession in the above-captioned chapter 11 cases (collectively, the "Debtors"), have requested that the Firm provide legal services to the Debtors, and the Firm has consented to provide such services (the "Services").

3. The Services include, but are not limited to, the following: Representing the Debtors in various legal venues including federal and state court as well as city and municipal court administrative court hearings. These include primarily the defense of the Debtors in civil suits brought by plaintiffs claiming personal injury in slip and fall cases and other negligence based actions. There are matters involving loss prevention such as excessive force, and construction negligence claims where accidents occur during construction/improvements. There are auto accidents involving store associates (employees). I also represent Debtors in civil enforcement actions, typically either violations related to the cost of goods for sale, expired product remaining for sale, and municipal code violations that must be repaired, replaced, or upgraded.

4. The Firm performed services in the past and may perform services in the future, in matters unrelated to these chapter 11 cases, for persons that are parties in interest in the Debtors' chapter 11 cases. As part of its customary practice, the Firm is retained in cases, proceedings, and transactions involving many different parties, some of whom may represent or be claimants or employees of the Debtors, or other parties in interest in these chapter 11 cases. The Firm does not perform services for any such person in connection with these chapter 11 cases. In addition, the Firm does not have any relationship with any such person, such person's attorneys, or such person's accountants that would be adverse to the Debtors or their estates with respect to the matters on which the Firm is to be retained.

5. Neither I, nor any principal of, or professional employed by the Firm has agreed to share or will share any portion of the compensation to be received from the Debtors with any other person other than principals and regular employees of the Firm.

6. Neither I nor any principal of, or professional employed by the Firm, insofar as I have been able to ascertain, holds or represents any interest materially adverse to the Debtors or their estates with respect to the matters on which the Firm is to be retained.

7. As of the commencement of this chapter 11 case, the Debtors owed the Firm $12,192.50 in legal fees, $3,256.69 for reimbursement of expenses, for a total of $15,449.19 in respect of pre-petition services rendered to the Debtors.

8. The Firm is conducting further inquiries regarding its retention by any creditors of the Debtors, and upon conclusion of this inquiry, or at any time during the period of its employment, if the Firm should discover any facts bearing on the matters described herein, the Firm will supplement the information contained in this Affidavit.

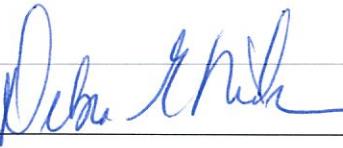

Pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §1746, I declare under penalty of perjury under the laws of the United States of America that the foregoing is true and correct, and that this Affidavit and Disclosure Statement was executed on December 13, 2018, at 1:30 p.m. CST.
